Workshop Types

Play in a Day

Play in a Day play workshops are an interactive way of encouraging learning and creativity. Play in a Day can also be adapted to a Play In A Week.

Suitable for 30-35 pupils

Creative Learning Workshop

Our professional workshop leaders take the pupils on an imagination based journey - actively involving them in the exploration of the subject.

Suitable for up to 120 pupils

Top Topics

Anti-Bullying #NoLaughingMatter

This show defines bullying and looks at how it can be resolved through support from peers and parents. When is a 'joke' not funny? What could happen when you send a picture to a friend?

Feedback

The children had such a fantastic day. All the children got involved and it was such a great way to bring their learning alive.

Churchwood Primary Academy

There were opportunities for all and even some of our quieter children oozed confidence when performing!

Cedars Academy

Working with Konflux is one of the highlights of the year. The children loved it! It combines learning, drama and fun.

Cringleford CE Primary School

It is an amazing workshop for the children as it really helps them to experience theatre as they may not have many opportunities out of school to do this.

Mountbatten Primary School

Fantastic company – professional throughout the whole process from booking to attending our provision

Treetops school

It's incredible how children can learn a whole play in a day!
